THE FORD COMMITTEE HAS TRANSFERRED ITS SEAT OF INQUIRY.

A Witness Found Who Believes That Asdated Emigration from England and Ircland Is Now a Thing of the Past-Emiation Statistics Gathered from the Chief New England Ports.

[BOSTON, Aug. 27.—The special Congressional Committee appointed to investigate into the alleged violation of the Immigration and Contract Labor laws, having made many startling disclosures in their work at New York, commenced their work in Boston this

But three members of the committee were present, Chairman W. H. Ford and Messrs. William C. Oates and Richard Guenther. Messrs. Morrow and Spinola were the ab-

Congressman Oates occupied the first half hour of the time in reading his voluminous mail, and the others waited patiently for the appearance of the first witness.

The Bowker-Torrey matter of imported labor will not be considered by the committee at this session, owing to the fat that the special agents of the Treasury Department are investigating the allegation and collecting evidence preparatory to the trial of the offenders.

fenders. Chairman Ford and the Socialist leader

Chairman Ford and the Socialist leader, Mr. Lee, engaged in a deep and interesting discussion of the all-important topic, the one holding his known political views and the other trying to convince him of the value of the Socialistic theory.

The first witness called was Stephen C. Wrightington, who is also State Superintendent of Indoor Poor. He testified that he is agent of the State Board of Charities and Lunacy. He has held this position twenty-nine years. He has been acting agent of the Board since 1863. Proor to 1882 it was a State law under which he acted. It is now a national office. The Secretary of the Treasury agrees to reimburse the State Board for any expense incurred in this work.

There have landed at the ports of this State in the last year 78,132 passengers, and of these 47,062 were immigrants. Many of these latter land at New Bedford and Provincetown.

At this juncture, Mr. Wrightington handed to Cha rman Ford a purser's list of cabin any statemage passengers, in which are included lists of these who should not be permitted to land, and from which he made reports.

Mr. Wrightington said in the last year 107 persons were found who ought not to have been landed, classified thus: Three limities, one convict, fifty, seven pappers and forty-one convict, fifty-seven paupers and forty-six contracted for. Of these, six of the paupers were landed and fifty-five of the others returned.

others returned.

Mr. Wrightington became aware some time ago that the British Government and the Tuke Society were assisting emigrants to this country. Some 7.500 were so assisted. It was founded by Mr. Tuke, of New York, a banker, and was a charitable scheme. Through them about $1,000,000 was appropriated by the British Government for that

The Mansion House fund was raised for purpose of assisting the Russian Jews Crimea to emigrate to America. 1842 a large number arrived this city. They were the poorset that ever came here and filled up almshouses. They would not eat the bread or other food, and had to be sent it.

The business of assisted emigrants, the witness believed, has become a thing of the past.

Balfour has declared in the British House that it having been found impossible to land them in this country no more assisted emigrants will be sent from England and Ireland to America. nd to America.
The witness remembered well the case of Johanna Casey, brought here by the Cunard line, who was not allowed to land, and whose bringing over cost the company a $1,000 fine. He did not believe that the Cunard or Allen lines now brought pauper emigrants.

SHE CAN'T BURY THE BABY.

The Sad Story of a Bereaved Elizabeth

Street Mother. Mrs. Robert Toole was sitting dejectedly in the basement of the rear house at 305 window were drawn down and an ice-box wrapped in white cauton flannel stood on a a table near them. Through a piece of glass about the size of the top of a hat could be dimly seen the pretty face of the dead baby, Robert, sixteen months old. At the head of the ice-box stood a caudelabrum and a crucifix. Four or five women were quietly sitting around the room.

Mrs. Toole's case is a hard one. Her husband used to be a ticket speculator and has no trade. He cannot get any work. For five weeks he was with the John L. Sullivan circus and he did not get a cent of his wages.

Mr. Toole said to the reporter: "He is a good man and sober, and he loves the children and would run his legs off for me. If he wasn't that kind of a man I wouldn't work and support him. I was at a restaurant and got $6 a week, till baby got sidek. But $2.50 went for rent for a half room, and I had to pay a woman $2 week for looking after the baby when I was out at work.

"I had to put the other two children out.

when we will get the money to bury the baby."

Mr. Kellogg, of the Charity Organization, visited Mrs. Toole this morning and said the baby could be buried at St. Michaed's, Astoria, but if the family buries it a carriage will be $5.50, the icing is $4, and the candles are 75 cents. A plain coffin will cost $6, so that the expenses will amount to $16.25. It costs a poor family more for a baby to go out of the world than to come into it. Mrs. Toole seems a very deserving woman.
